

NJJS ESL NEWSLETTER

3/5/2019 NJJS ESL DEPARTMENT

今年度最後の NJJS NEWSLETTER となります。NJJS ESL DEPARTMENT の活動にご理解・ご協力をいただき、ありがとうございました。NJJS ESL DEPARTMENT 一同、感謝申し上げます。来年度もどうぞよろしく願いいたします。今月の NJJS NEWSLETTER では、2月の学習状況と3月の学習内容についてお伝えします。なお、Robin 先生は3月1日までお休みしていたため、Nancy 先生のクラスで学習を行いました。

GRADES 7-9

Nadia

In February we:

- Learned vocabulary about jobs/occupations
- Used the word "can" to express ability for themselves and also in terms of jobs and what people can do
- Learned about Abraham Lincoln and George Washington (President's Day)
- Practiced grammar, such as 3rd person singular
- Used Scholastic magazine to practice reading and vocabulary
- Continued working in our Spelling books

In March we will:

- Review what we have learned by playing games
- Continue working in our Spelling books

The students have done a wonderful job learning and participating! We will be finishing up and ending the year in a great way!

Sandra

The class is doing great job with their weekly presentations, and I couldn't be more proud of them. We have been working a lot on speaking in this class, and the students are doing a great job! Enjoy your spring break!

In February we:

- Practiced conversation about their weekend
- Continued with Wordly Wise
- Read Scholastic News and talked about current events
- Learned about Martin Luther King
- Did a presentation on a country

	In March we will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Continue with our Wordly Wise series</li> <li>• Continue with our Scholastic News</li> <li>• Watch a movie and present some questions based on the film</li> </ul>
Nancy	Your students have made wonderful progress in English this year. They are participating more easily in class discussions and have made great improvements in their reading and writing. I have enjoyed working with them this year. Thank you for all your support throughout the year. It was great having Ms. Robin's class join us for a while. Her students have been working hard on their Literature curriculum and have also judged my class' debate. I wish all of you a wonderful spring vacation. In February we: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• researched for, practiced, and held a debate.</li> <li>• read some short stories and completed activities related to those stories.</li> <li>• wrote an essay.</li> </ul> In March we will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• practice English through games.</li> </ul>
Robin	I am glad to be back. I really appreciate your understanding of my condition this past month. The class really did well and completed all the activities related to the novel in a timely manner. They are extremely hardworking students. Congratulations to my 9th graders graduating. I hope you all have a great break! In March we will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• finish reading the novel To Kill a Mocking Bird.</li> <li>• watch clips from the movie To Kill a Mocking Bird.</li> <li>• complete grammar activities.</li> </ul>

