Grade 1 - 3

Robin	This month we took some time to complete writing activities. They did a wonderful job researching on their ipads and writing descriptive “how to speeches”. We also decorated a snow globe and wrote descriptive sentences about what we would do inside of a snowglobe. Keep up the great work! In January we: <ul style="list-style-type: none">● researched and wrote “how to speeches” on making hot chocolate and building a snowman.● decorated a snowglobe and wrote descriptive sentences.● learned about Martin Luther King, Jr.● read a Scholastic News about winter and learned about caption writing.● practiced for the school exchange.
Renata	Welcome 2023 and Happy New Year! January was filled with winter vocabulary and crafts. We learned about the different activities and clothing we wear in the season of winter. Students researched snow globes and how they are made. Each student created their very own paper snow globe. The class wrote descriptive sentences about what they would have inside their snow globe. We continued to build our vocabulary word wall while we mastered vowel sounds, long and short. Students read our Scholastics magazine about Martin Luther King, Jr. and watched videos about his accomplishments. In January we: <ul style="list-style-type: none">● updated our calendar to 2023.● discussed winter sports and activities.● learned winter vocabulary.● researched Martin Luther King, Jr.● created a snow globe craft.● wrote descriptive sentences.

January was an exciting month as we welcomed students back to class from the holidays. Students learned about the winter season and what types of clothes to wear to stay warm. We read books about winter sports and fun activities to do in the snow. The class worked on their vocabulary words and practiced their phonics while learning about vowel sounds. Each student created a snow globe craft and learned about adjectives to describe what they would put in their snow globe. The class watched videos on Martin Luther King, Jr. and learned about his life story.

In January we:

- shared our holiday plans.
- researched the season of winter.
- learned about winter sports and activities.
- studied what an adjective is.
- created snow globes.
- watched a video on Martin Luther King, Jr.
